No Spartan tube, no attic shell,
No lyre Kolian I awake;
'Tis Liberty's bold note I swell,
My harp, Columbia, let me take.
See gathering thousands, while I sing,
A broken chain, exulting, bring and dash it in a tyrant's face!
'And dare him to his very beard,
And tell him he no more is feared,
No more the Des; of of Columbia's race, tyrant's proudest insults braved,
They shout, a People freed! They hall an Empire saved.

There is man's godlike form?

(bore is that brow erect and bold,

"re that can, unmoved, "shold

The 'fildest rage, the igudest storm,

That e'er created fury dared to raise?

Avaunt! then, caitiff, servile, base,

That tremblest at a Despot's nod,

Yet, crouching under th' iron rod.

One is laud the arm that struck the insulting blo

Art shou of man's imperial line?

Boot boast that countenance divine?

Each skulking feature answers, No!

But come, ye sons of Liberty.

Sut come, ye sons of Liberty, Columbia's offspring, brave as free. In Danger's hour still flaming in the van, Ye know and dare maintain the Royalty of man. 113. Alfred, on thy starry throne,
Surrounded by the tuneful choir,
The bards that erst have struck the patriot lyre,
And roused the free-born Briton's soul of fire,
No more thy England own.
Dare injured nations from the great design
To make detested tyrants bleed?
Thy England execrates the glorious deed
Beneath her hostile bauners waving,
Every pang of honor braving,
England in thunder calls—"The Tyrant's cause innine!"

mine!"
That hour accurst, how did the fiends rejoice,
And bell thro' all her confines arise the exulting

That hour which saw the generous English name Linkt with such damned deeds of everlasting shame!

Thee, Caledonia, thy wild heaths among, Famed for the martial deed, the heaven-taught song,

To thee I turn with swimming eyes,
'here is that soul of Freedom fied?
mmingled with mighty Dead!
Beneath that hallowed turf where Wallace lies. Hear it not, Wailace, in thy bed of Death! Ye babbling winds in silence sweep; Disturb not ye the hero's sleep, or give the coward secret breath. Is this the ancient Caledonian form, Firm as her rock, resistions as her storm? Show me that eye which shot immortal hate, Blasting the Despot's prondest bearing; Show me that arm, which, nerved with thur Braved Usurpation's boldest daring!

Dark quenched as youder sinking star, No more that glance lightens afar; That palsied arm no more whirls on the waste of

A NEW DISCOVERY. never could make him out. When he

Slyke became an honored citizen. During the first weeks of his stay certain evil disposed persons seemed to doubt his right to have a place in their midst. | crowd. Some said he was a road agent, who made his living by exacting tribute from the traveling public. Some said he had "made his pile" in other doubtful ways, cached it, and had settled ery I asked myself, 'Cui bono?' For down in Cedarville to spend it. But yours, certainly." these ill-natured reports soon died away under the sunshine of Doctor Slyke's huge-booted miner. "I'll lead off,

Extraordinary? Why, that isn't the lous. He was so gifted with the power of speech that it was a brave man who dared to take a hand with him. As we said before, Hickory Johnson went out of the business forever, and then Doctor Siyke was thrown upon his own resources. Gambling as a means of making a living was played out, and no one as men were seen feeling in their pockcared to run the bank-Cedarville was ets, and Jim Sprig had laid his hat on

After idling around in a genteel fashion for some weeks the doctor bade the people of Cedarville an affectionate ter help a deservin' man kin walk up." adieu and was seen no more for a adventurer had so ingratiated himself three. with her people that a most substantial lety. It is so all the world over; we his pocket. "Stumped, by thunder!" ap to one man in tribute to his "Hold on, gentlemen," said the doccacethes loquendi with which Doctor Slyke was afflicted, the men of Cedarville, with that peculiar taste common to that peculiar place, admire a man self;" and burst into tears. ly held a first-class hand in the game of broke," said Jim enumerating the

"Mates," said Jim Sprig one night in Gregory's bar-mom, six month's after, it aim't none o' my fuseral, but I tell you at doe's agoin' ter turn up, an' thet before long. I feel it in my bones. Did ye ever notice a crimson streak along the top of old Sareh, as the sun went."

"Gentlemen." said Dr. Slyke his

$2.00 PER ANNUM.

Devoted to the Interests of Southwest Nebraska.

C. L. MATHER. Publisher.

RED CLOUD, WEBSTER CO., NEB., THURSDAY, JUNE 18, 1874.

NO. 51.

On this particular evening Doctor Slyke was perceptibly, sociably and con-fidentially drunk.

VOL. I.

band neatly turned over the coat-cuffwhich had weight.

"I have been to see my family, residing in Fourteen-Mile Gap," resumed Doctor Slyke; "and, as I said before, I have resolved to bring them farther "Euch Reader, I thank the Beader, I was ice." West. To-day I came through Carson's Pass (having walked all the way), and on casting my eyes toward the summit of the mountain I beheld something that is dubious and obscure in their bewhich thrilled me to the very soul. I havior. It may arise from an inherent had made a new discovery !"

"Cinnabar?" said Jim. "Silver?" said another. "Gentlemen, quicksilver is not gen-estimation, is equally as valuable. "Is it gold?"

"It is not gold, gentlemen."
"Then it can't be diamonds. What in thunder is it, Doc. ?" is generated in a temperature not ranging higher than thirty-two degrees. This substance takes the form of a tabula rosa when the parts are in a complacent state. Sometimes it assumes a He was without exception one of the In appearance it is limpid, translucent, other side of the road on being apmost extraordinary vagabonds to be opaque. In nature it is the opposite Found upon the Pacific coast. How he from colorific; it is brittle and easily made a living no one can tell. His removed. Its uses are many. In tropclothes were never of the best, yet he ical latitudes its value is incalculable, always had plenty of money; and and even in this climate it is valued denizens of Cedarville exceedingly; they largely used in bibulous communities, rank, they are expected to be quiet and his bones were found in 1705 near the (The doctor's elegance of diction was respectful. was first seen in the community he was unsurpassed.) To satisfy myself, I standing in the dusty twilight fondly toiled up the mountain, and found that patting the top of a pine-stump, which my conjectures were right. Said I to at the time seemed to be his only myself, on beholding the treasure. 'I Cedarville flourished and Doctor don the vulgarism, gentlemen, but my a day. He will be sound in a short feelings overcome me. At this point the doctor named his 'pizin" and shook hands with the

> "Gentlemen," resumed the doctore 'a sense of gratitude to all impels md to disclose this secret. You have useme well, and when I made this discov; "Let's pre-empt right off," said a hey, Doc. ?" "Certainly, sir, ex pede Herculem, word for it. The way that man would and I know of no more capable man sit in Hickory Johnson's saloon-be- than yourself. I was about to propose fore Hickory went out of the business it. Gentlemen-ahem !- I have a fami- be wants the horse to trot, and taking (pistol-bali) -and bluff a man right ly to bring on, but what I lack is the them off at all other times. The sudden square down on the breechen on a necessary funds. I may say, under the worthless hand was perfectly miracu- present position, I am stans pede in uno. | the horses to change his gait. I have been an erring man, I know, but I now see a chance to redeem myself. I have friends, gentlemen," added the doctor, huskily, "who will see me com-fortably situated, but it is rather obnoxious to tax their generosity." The crowd had evidently taken a hint, taken with a virtuous fit-and the doc- the bar. All this the doctor did not tor was too high-notioned to swing a seem to notice, but kept his eyes mod-pick. "Ther bank's open, mates," said James, "an' all wot's disposed ter give A steady fire was kept upon the ob-

Cedarville, as a matter of course, slid came Bill Watson's turn. Bill threw in long on the even tenor of its way after better. James saw it and went two locator Slyke's departure, but the wary better. Bill saw him and raised him lose. The danger is generally in line, in life, just before his death, he published a sequel, entitled, "Further growing. He may be fed from two weeks old. At that time, in addition to way of making it was to put a quart of way of making it was to put a quart of three. "I see ther gentleman's pile an'

"Forgive me, gentlemen," said Doc-tor Slyke despondingly, "I forget mywho was death on Poker, and common- "One navy, with ther tumbler sweating up the rugged sides of the Sierra to view the new discovery. Nearly eight thousand feet above them was "You did not know I was a married the white rock, behind which lay the

Jim laid his hand upon it, and arose

with a face as red as a beet. "Euched, by thunder !" Reader, the doctor had told the truth.

Shyness. Shyness is a curious peculiarity of some men, and the explanation of much modesty and reluctance to intrude. from a sense of inferiority, or a notion, that people look down on you, in which case it is a kind of mistaken erally found at such a height. It was pride. It often happens that a man nephenot silver, but a substance which, in my gets the reputation of being haughty or high. unsocial, when he is only shy. An uncompany—participating in the excite-ment of the hour, and having got over Isoret, who was 20 feet high. "Gentlemen, the only answer I can all the difficulties of the first address, In Rouen, in 1509, in digging in the make is that the component parts of this he generally "comes out." Often we ditches near the Dominicans, they found substance are known in chemistry by the find him talkative and entertaining, so a stone tomb containing a skeleton, symbols HO. I see you are all atten- that strangers go away, saying : "Well, whose skull held a bushel of corn, and tion, gentlemen, and I will endeavor to there is one of the pleasantest men I whose shin-bone reached up to the explain to you the uses of this wonder- have ever met with." Strange it is next girdle of the tallest man there, being ful-ah-substance. In the first place, day to meet the same man in the street, about four feet long, and consequently it is a rarity in this part of the world. and find him make an effort to avoid the body must have been 17 or 18 feet It is only to be found at very high alti- you, or at least to hurry past you with high. Upon the tomb was a plate of tudes, and is most common to the Arctic an awkward bow. Lord M., a person copper, whereon was engraved, "In and Antartic regions. This substance of this kind, always walked along the this tomb lies the noble and puissant groundward bent, as if anxious to escape observing or being observed. A duty every day for one-half the year, pendant form, and sometimes lumpy. has actually known him to cross to the been at least 19 feet high.

About the Horse.

To CURE POLYPUS in the nostril, cut it out; check the bleeding by holding visible support, and saying: "Thank you, sonny. The good—hic!—are alplaying it pretty low down on the boys ways rewarded; here are two bits."

It out; eneck the bleeding by nothing caustic on the wound. Next day, and for two or three days, sponge the wound with salt and vinegar once ounce each, fresh lard one-half pound : galls, cuts, and sores of all kinds on horses or cattle.

CHANGING A GAIT.—A blacksmith has succeeded in changing the gait of a paeing horse to that of a trotter by simply fastening an extra pair of shoes, heavier than usual, to his forefeet, whenever

Good Advice.-When your horse stumbles, never raise your voice-the creature dreads its master's chiding; other 36 feet high. never jog the reins-the mouth of the horse is far more sensitive than the hu- found a skeleton, the head of which man lips ; never use the lash, the horse could scarce be encompassed by the is so timid that the slightest correction arms of two men together, and whose overpowers its reasoning faculties. legs, which they still keep in the castle Speak to the creature ; reassure the pal- of that city, were 26 feet long. pitating frame, seek to restore these The skutl of the giant found in perceptions which will form the best Macedonia, September, 1691, held 210 guard against a repetition of the faulty pounds of corn. action.

To FEED A COLT .- It is the early care of the colt which makes or mars the should be brushed daily, so as to keep men, but was much used it

The Bible mentions served cases of giants, as the Rephaims, the Anakims, "You did not know I was a married man, I suppose, gentlemen?" said this educated vagabond, seating himself on a barrel. "No? Well, yes. I have been on a visit to my family, and am now on my way to the coast to find a suitable place to remove them to. Gentlemen, with all my faults, I trust I am capable of a good action."

To do the doctor justice, he was capable of a good action, for when the Chinaman slid down the flume and broke his legs, the doctor nursed him as not have the eyes of the eagle, they got was 10 feet high.

The doctor must have gone the most imaginative flum and some of the flum his legs, the doctor nursed him as tenderly as he would nurse one who was qualified by birth and education to testify against a white man.

"I trust I am capable of a good action." There were pathos and dignity in the tone of the doctor's voice as he uttered these words. More, too; there was a world of eloquence in the wave of the doctor's arm—which had the wrist-band neatly turned over the coat-cuff—

"I make the eyes of the eagle, they got tired of waiting, and went behind the rock to see for themselves. Jim Sprig was ahead, when his eyes compute the coat-cuff—

"Yer she is, mates," said Jim with a yell, as he sprang forward. The excited crowd followed, and saw him lay his hand upon a clear substance which lay before them like a lake.

Jim laid his hand upon it, and arose

the time of Eugene the Second, King of Scotland, measured 11; feet; and Jacob le Maire, in his voyage to the Straits of Magellan, reports that on the with stones, and having the curiosity to one-tenth that time. remove the stones, they discovered hu-man skeletons 10 and 11 feet long.

The Chevalier Scory, in his voyage to the Peak of Teneriffe, says that they found in one of the sepulchral caverns of that mountain the head of a Gaunche which had 80 teeth, and that the body was not less than 15 feet long.

The giant Ferragus, slain by Orlando, nephew of Charlemagne, was 18 feet

Rioland, a celebrated anatomist, who conquerable bashfulness oppresses wrote in 1614, says that some years be-hira. When such a man is drawn into inner side of the pavement, with eyes lord, the Chevalier Ricon de Vallemont, and his bones."

Platerus, a famous physician, declares person who is associated with him in that he saw at Lucerne the true human bones of a subject which must have

Valence, in Dauphine, boasts of posproached, and endeavor to escape his sessing the bones of the giant Bucart, notice by pretending to take an interest tyrant of the Vivarais, who was slain by in something on the other side of the an arrow by the Count de Cabillon, his vassal. The Dominicans had a part of hedge. Men, on the contrary, who get the reputation of being forward, are often the shin-bone, with the articulation of banks of the Morderi, a little river at the foot of the mountain of Crussol,

Jan. 11, 1613, some masons digging near the ruins of a castle in Dauphine, in a field which by tradition had long been called the Giant's Field, at the CURING SCRATCHES. - Take white pine | the words Theutobochus Rex cut therepitch, rosin, beeswax, and honey, one on. When the tomb was opened, they found a human skeleton entire-254 melt well together over a slow fire; stir feet long, 10 feet wide across the till quite thick, so that the parts may shoulders, and 5 feet deep from the not settle and separate. This also makes breast-bone to the back. His teeth an excellent application for harness were about the size each of an ox's foot, and his shin-bone measured four

Near Mezarino, in Sicily, 1516, was found a giant 30 feet high; his head was the size of a hogshead, and each of his teeth weighed five ouncer. Near Palermo, in the valley of Mazara, in Sicily, a skeleton of a giant 30 feet long was found in the year 1548. change of weight or his forefeet forces and another of 33 feet high in 1550; and many curious persons have preserved several of these gigantic bones. The Athenians found near their city two famous skeletons, one 34 and the

At Totu, in Bohemia, in 758, was Virtue of Tar Water.

Bishop Berkeley published a work on jective point a few minutes, and then it horse. The danger is generally in stary- "The Virtues of Tar Water," and later the milk from the mare, he should have tar into a gallon of water, stir it thorvacuum was felt in the ranks of her so- rise him agin," said James, as he felt in a handful—at first—of oatmeal or oats, oughly, let it stand forty-eight hours, soaked in sweet cow's milk or water. then pour off the water. A half-pint in "Hold on, gentlemen," said the doc- If the mare does not give much milk the morning, on rising, and a half-pint good qualities and deeds, and admire tor, fumbling at a buckle, "and I'll this may be gradually increased up to on going to bed, was the common dose, two quarts of oatmeal or oats in a few In those days it was almost as common weeks. No corn should be given to a to call for a glass of ter water in a cofcolt at any time, and all the oats he wi'l fee house as a dish of tea or coffee. It dust, an'—minety dullars in kinst hefore long. I feel it in my bones. Dul ye ever notice a crimion streak along the top of old Sarsh, as the sun west down? Well. I never noticed thet king of 'lithest somethin' turnia' up.'

As in apolic his eye rested upon the knob of 'sa flore,' which was need to gradually turn. The knob stopped durning, the door canada foot or to and through the epuming was threated and he deed stand fenced in at the bans by a made flant of the color, which was never to helf the something of the color, which was never to helf the something of the color of the something of the color, which was never to gradually turn. The knob stopped
durning, the door canada foot or to,
and the deposited the heap in the docdurning, the door canada foot or to,
and the deposited the heap in the docdurning, the door canada foot or to,
and the deposited the heap in the docdurning, the door canada foot or to,
and the deposited the heap in the docdurning, the door canada foot or to,
and the deposited the heap in the docdurning, the door canada foot or to,
and through the opening was threated
the property of Dootor Siyha.
I find the docdurning of the top of the top of the
through the docdurning, the door canada foot or to,
and through the opening was threated to the color of the surface of the top of the dirty head surmounted by a blanking had hat and fenced in at the bans by a property of Dootor Siyha.
The head nodded in a dignified way to the top of the top of the top of the through the docdurning, the door canada foot of the surface of the top of the through the opening was threated to the surface of the more was the was the
through the docdurning, the door canada foot or to,
and through the opening was the top of the
through the docdurning, the door canada foot or to,
and through the opening was the top of the
through the docdurning, the door canada foot or to,
and through the opening was the top of the
through the docdurning, the door canada foot or to,
and through the opening was the top

All Sorts.

STREET cars in Japan. Iowa has 62,000 Spiritualists. KING KOFFEE has 8,333 wives. England has 3,423,681 maids. QUEEN EMMA weighs 300 pounds. ENGLAND is building twenty-seven

Iowa boasts of a dozen of newspapers conducted by lady editors. DENVER, Col., did business to the amount of $15,000,000 last year. India rubber trees have been found on the St. John's river in Florida.

It took three menths balloting to elect Charles Sumner Senator the first time.

In a comparatively short time Texas will be the most important producer of white winter wheat in the Union. Five hundred millions of dollars and three millions of men are the cost and force of Europe's standing armies, Ir takes a domesticated fly a two-17th day of December, 1615, they found | billionth part of a second to wink, while at Port Desire several graves covered an industrious mosquito can do it in

> LAST year four of the twenty cities margining the great lakes shipped 162,-362,896 bushels of grain, and Montreal more than 18,000,000.

THE business failures in the United total liabilities, $228,499,000.

A New York firm have in their store a piece of lace five yards long, worth $1,200 a yard, which a man could crowd into his watch fob or pocketbook. A CINCINNATI professor has demonstrated that a man feels just as satisfied after lunching on a raw turnip alone as if he had feasted at a king's table.

to being burned alive.

said to be satisfactory.

THE Canadian inland revenue report gives us some interesting figures about upon which, tradition says, the giant | the amount of intoxicating liquors consumed by our neighbors on the other side of the line. In appears that the quantity of gallons of proof spirits depth of 18 feet discovered a brick tomb for use was 90,538 gallons less than 30 feet long, 12 feet wide, and 8 feet during 1872, still it amounted to 4,739,high, on which was a gray stone, with | 027, or considerably more than a gallon of proof spirits for every man, woman and child in the Dominion. HERE is a hint to railway officers : The conductor of cars in Constantinople gives to every passenger a prize ticket, provided a certain number of prizes, The hope of drawing a prize makes the passenger anxious to send in his ticket, and if the returns of the conductor are not equal to the number of returned and he is at once discharge !.

THE United States Postoffice Department announces that articles of agreement providing for an exchange of postal cards between this country and Switzerland have been concluded, and are now in effect. The postage on postal cards sent from the United States and addressed to Switzerland has been fixed at 2 cents each, prepayment to be made by affixing thereto an ordinary 1 cent. United States postage-stamp in addition to the stamp printed or impressed on the card.

Spanish Life.

stream, for your manners are voted to tempty indecent if you touch the brim with your lips. Very few among these lower classes can read and write. There are no schools to speak of in the interior; even for the higher classes there are no government, and it is no uncom-

An Incident of the Mill River Disaster.

[Northampton (Mass.) Cor. New York Herald.] Among the multitude of strange and touching events incidental to this calamity is one showing the remarkable For sagacity and intelligence of the canine race which is worthy of record. Col. Hayden, one of the sons of the late Lieut.-Gov. Hayden, owns a noble dog of the St. Bernard species. He has for But we never could step for a moment a long time been a virilage favorite, and pet of the school-children, who were taught near the Hayden residence. He taught near the Hayden residence. He was as punctual at his recesses as the foremost child. The little ones could adorn his tail with fancy ribbons, wind their jumping ropes all around him, and throw him upon the grand a colline; send him to fetch sticks, push him off the bank into the river, harness him up and run the streets with switch in hand, and in fact do almost anything with him, and yet he was their close friend and protector. It is said of him that he had a special liking for little girls, and that one of his greatest favorites was the little Birmingham girl who was swept down and lost with her father, and all her brothers and sisters. A pat from her hand was seemingly enough to repay him for waiting until school but the giant of Castle Ruin has ded from his wo was out, when he would almost invariably accompany her home. But the mastiff had another friend in Mr. Eli Bryant, the father of Mrs. Col. Hayden, gentleman something over sixty years of age. He was delighted to be The lawyers, and moral suasion, may be able some States for 1872 were 4,069; total liabili- with him, uneasy when he was away, ties, $121,056,000. For 1874, 5,183; and always when he could he would accompany the old gentleman in his walks about the village. Mr. Bryant was among the victims of the disaster, and so were many others of the dog's old friends. It said that no human beings ever expressed a keener sense of the general surrounding sadness than His movements even in the bustle and confusion of the occasion were noticeable. He went to the school-THE press law of Japan prohibits house, but came almost directly home attacking the Government, or publish domain of the family, and was in every

ing any articles of an evil tendency. part of the house snuffing about. An The penalties vary from the chain-gang old pair of boots of Mr. Bryant's attracted his repeated attention, as did A PORTION, consisting of 10,000 copies, also several articles of clothing of his of a recent issue of the Dundee Adver- lost friend. Sunday afternoon he tiser was printed on paper manufact- started out and followed the searchers ured from reeds grown on the banks of for bodies on the meadow lands. This old bachelor adds : "Ivy is like woman the Tay. The paper is said to closely afternoon he was seen on Miller's flate, resemble that made from jute. As far pawing in the sand. His actions finally are ruined." as the experiment has been tried, it is excited sufficient attention to attract visitors, who found that he had dug SIR HENRY THOMSON, the great advo- quite a trench. In this excavation the would have for breakfast, replied: cate of cremation, is to take a pleasure cause of the creature's vigorous efforts tour through the United States. Cre- and his barking was explained. There hip over a chicken. mation innovations will be in order. was disclosed the lower portion of a All cities visited are to furnish, from man's limbs, the toes of his shoes being among the number now so anxious to upturned. They could have hardly the shin-bone, with the articulation of the knee, and his ngure painted in frest that are willing to demonstrate the practure of that are willing to demonstrate the practure of the control of the contr where he came from no one ever knew. highly. I know that the inhabitants of merely persons of strong animal spirits; the knee, and his ngure painted in frest that are willing to demonstrate the practical utility of the cheap funeral process next half-hour revealed the form of Mr. I had my hands full of rein. bout Doctor Siyke, which puzzled the enizens of Cedarville exceedingly; they largely used in bibulous communities. society, where, from their comparative this giant was 221 feet high, and that by meekly permitting their bodies to largely used in bibulous communities. Bryant. As the workmen prosecuted the be reduced to ashes. lay down at the feet. Finally, when the face was exposed to view, the poor creature seemed overjoyed, but when a cloth was wrapped around the rigid form and the removal was begun, the noble animal seemed bowed with grief the new ten-cent scrip so much like the manufactured during 1873 was 5,547,517, and though the quantity entered and sullenly and sadly he followed the fifty-cent scrip. It is no pleasant senparty home. Diligent search had been sation, after burrying home from a made for these remains in this exact store, and all the way being under the locality, and it is barely possible impression that you have beaten that any human being could have ever somebody out of forty cents, to find found the imbedded corpse. It is reather that you have the right change, after sonable to believe that some of those all. now missing are beneath the sand-beds, which weere swept over the intervals and left by the flood, their bones to be found in after time by accident or by bearing a number, which is recorded on the changing of the course of Mill river. the company's books. A drawing takes The spot where Mr. Bryant's body was and was obliged to listen to this effusion place monthly, the company having found is many yards from the river bed.

The Monastic Libraries.

The seals of some of the oldest and most valuable monastic libraries in Italy tickets, his dishonesty is easily detected, are at last to be broken. Priceless manbeen met with such vexatious restric- ass who complained of it." tions as made the libraries practically as inaccessible as if they were on Mt. Athos or Sinai. Now these treasures, ration for his older sister's beauty. contained in the Vatican, ere to be as "Yes, pretty handsome." "But isn't Spaniards usually keep their valua- Rome have determined to preserve three "Hub."-New York World. bles concealed about their houses. In only out of the forty libraries intact. the towns of the interior no one makes | These are the Casanateuse in the Minuse of a bank, preferring to lose the m- erva, the Dominican monastery where took to the Register of Wills in that terest on their money rather than risk the Inquisition held its sittings, the city a will made by her husband, which the principal. The poorer class of Angelica, belonging to the Augustinian she desired to file for probate. "When Spaniards carry the whole of their order, and the Allessandrina in the Uni. did he die?" inquired the sympathetic worldly goods about them. Their fare versity, the three largest and most imclerk. "Why, bless you," responded is the very simplest. Bread and fruit portant libraries, after the Vatican, in the woman, "he an't dead yet, but he is the very simplest. Bread and fruit portant libraries, after the Vatican, in and fruit and bread, with now and then, the city. They contain together a lit- gave me that [pointing to the will], and for the men, a glass of the rough red the ever 300,000 volumes. Of the books he drinks a quart of liquor every day, wine of the country, is the staple of in the other monasteries, there are to be and I guess," continued she with a their sustenance. The only thing about selected 600,000 volumes, half of which laugh, "he'll play out in about three which the Spaniards, high or low, are are to be divided nearly equally amongst months." The officer had no more to really particular, is their water. In a these three libraries. The commission colt at any time, and all the oats he will eat up clean and with an eager appetite may be given without danger. He should be brushed daily, so as to keep should be brushed daily.

masters, as Palestrins and others.—
Boston Al Cliser.

Boston to carry his luggage to any one to carry his luggage to any

THE RED CLOUD CHIEF

RATES OF ADVERTISING: are meathe, siz menths.... One column, three months " six months." twelve months

Marriage and Oblinary Notices free, Local no-tices like per line, Transient and Legal Advertise-ments payable in advance, Yearly advertisements payable quarterly.

PRAYED HIM OUT.

The shutters are up at the windows; the boil is turned now in the door the groggery on the corner that few closed before; the women came from their dwell gathered the shop about, And Tom slid out at the back-door, for the

We've arrested that fellow, and fined bin, times than I've fingers and toes, soon prayed him out.

We've tried on him moral sussien; we've fictures

Tom Murphy could stand the pressure when one woman came alone,
To pray and weep in his bar-room—to plead with his heart of stone; But when they came down in battalions and kneit on his bar-room floor,
The shutters went up at the windows—the key turned the bolt in the door.

Tom Murphy has bribed our judges-has bought all our juries, too; Our single prayers and entreaties he stubbernly waded through; that the giant of Castle Ruin has fied from his world floor to pray. Don't quibble about who did it; enough that the work is done; And mothers shall seek at Murphy's no more for a fore to rout, But give me the praying women who prayed Tom

Humorous, "SPIRIT OF THE PRESS,"-A glass of

When is a balloon not a balloon? When

A HEALTH that is very rarely drunk-The public health. THE "coughing hoss" is the Indian

How NATURAL it iz for man when he makes a mistake to korrect it by kussing somebody else for it, -Josh Bill-

Woman is like ivy-the more you are ruined the closer she clings to you. An -the closer it sticks to you the more you A MAN from Placerville, Cal., when asked by a Saratoga waiter what he "Well, I rather guess I'll just flop my Tux "elements" of a quarrel-Irate party to 'bus driver: "Why don't you what a recreation it is to be dying of love! It sets the heart aching so delicately there's no taking a wink of sleep for the pleasure of the pain.

WILLIAM M. EVARTS, in a recent speech at the Lotus Club, told of a Yankee schoolmaster who undertook to make compulsory poets of his scholars, of one of them : Oh, hopeful Jove, lend us thine aid,

To help us wretched scholars; We've hired a fool to teach this school, "Norming," said an impatient husband, "reminds me so much of Balaam uscripts yet uncollected, works of in- and his ass as two women stopping in estimable value for historical investiga-tions, have long been buried and closely dulge in their everlasting talk." "But guarded within the walls of the con- you forget, my dear," returned the wife, vents. If any persistent explorer has meekly, "that it was the angel who gained admission to them, he has still stopped the way, and Balaam and his A LITTLE fellow the other day was endeavoring to excite a playmate's admiwith the important exception of those "Isn't she handsome?" he asked. free to the student asif they were placed she very handsome?" "Well, some on the shelves of the British Museum or in the alcoves of our own public tinction. Such a nicety of discriminalibrary. The commission on the prop- tion in the over-tutored mind of youth erty of the suppressed convents in could only have found expression in the A BALTIMORE Woman a few days ago say, but filed away the will.

Canon Fremantle, in a recent lecture door is is, in all cases. Go into the of the cases topography, chronology, American will enter into domestic servis well to have a closed stall next to the mare for the colt, in which he may run loose when not at pasture.

How to Pressure a Bouquer.—
When you receive a bouquet, sprinkle into a vessel containing some scapsude, which nourish the roots and keep the fore, useful not only as a pectoral and they into a vessel containing some scapsude, which nourish the roots and keep the fore, useful not only as a pectoral and lay its indicated out of the sundance of the sundance of the content of the content of the sundance of the content of the sundance of the content of the content of the sundance of the content of the content of the sundance of the content of the content of the sundance of the content of the content of the sundance of the content of the content of the content of the sundance of the content of the sundance of the content of the sundance of the content of the totimply indecent if you touch the brim with your lips. Very few among these lower classes can read and write. There are no schools to speak of in the interior; even for the higher classes there are no government, and it is no uncommon thing to find a well-born lady not very well up to writing a letter. The lower classes, are, of course, grossly superstitious. Fortune telling abounds. These is, however, a wast deal of natisfal courtesy, natural wit, natural intelligence. Uncultivated and uneducated as he is, the Spenish poor man has the management of a perfect gentleman.

Table of the Canada the paid. When he arrived at Easton size to despois, it is a man there who can there who can the side of his cab all the way to Gloucester Plain—over a mile—for the communication in Boston he tound it impossible to get any one to carry his luggage to another station three hundred yards off, and had to do it himself, though, as there were paid. When he arrived at Easton size to demon till the man to demon till them by the side of his cab all the way to Gloucester Plain—over a mile—for the ligence. Uncultivated and uneducated as he is, the Spenish poor man has the man to life to try charming; some are in factor in Boston he tound it impossible to get any one to carry his luggage to another station three hundred yards off, and had to do it himself, though, as there were paid. When he arrived at Easton size to do do it himself, though, as there were paid. When he arrived at Easton size to do it himself, though, as there were paid. When he arrived at Easton size to do do it himself, though, as there were a man there who can the size of his cab all the way to Gloucester Plain—over a male—for the size of his cab all the way to distinct the size of his cab all the way to distinct the size of his cab all the way to distinct the paid to doubt the size of his cab all the size of his